Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States.—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L & R. with the [illegible] cut, which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely [illegible] Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade [illegible] and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

SOLUBLE

——The Democratic County Executive Committee did not meet, yesterday, as it was expected to, on account of the rains, the bad roads and the swollen streams.

——Yesterday was an exceedingly busy day with cotton men. A large amount of the staple was handled, money was somewhat easier, and business generally was better.

——As the weather gets cooler and the springs and sea side begin to be deserted, the grass widowers of the city are sobering up and re-assuming the saddened countenance of family men.

——The State Executive Committee ask us to call attention to the fact that the name of our candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction is John C. Scarborough, and not Jas. C. Scarborough.

——Another storm, less severe, however, than the first, occurred at Morehead City and Beaufort, Friday morning, doing fresh damage. The track of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, at Morehead, which had just been repaired from the effects of the first storm, was again considerably washed.

Thief Arrested.

Officer Parham, of the police force, returned to this city, yesterday morning, from Morrisville, whither he went for the purpose of arresting a young white man named Milton Maynard, who was charged with larceny and with obtaining property and money under false pretences in this city, some four or five days ago. A silver watch which he had stolen from a colored woman was recovered, but nothing was found of shoes, gold buttons and other articles, which he is alleged to have stolen from different parties. Officer Parham went up to Morrisville, Friday evening, returning yesterday morning, put the prisoner in the lock-up, there to remain until this morning, when he will have a hearing.

Cotton Movements for the Week.

The receipts of cotton for the week ending the 22nd, were 1,095 bales; same week last year, 630 bales; increase for week this year, 465 bales. It will be seen from this statement, that the new crop is coming in very rapidly, the necessities of farmers forcing them to sell, notwithstanding the low price. The market during the week was varied as to its tone, though prices changed very little.—The market closed at about 10½ for best grades, with little prospect for an immediate change for the better.

The Late Great Storm at Beaufort.

Mr. R. H. Bradley, of this city, who has just returned home from Beaufort, gives a thrilling account of the recent great storm which swept along the Atlantic coast. Mr. Bradley was stopping at the time, at the Atlantic Hotel, and witnessed, to the confusion, the whole effect of the storm as to this house The wave dashed against and under it, with such terrific fury as to drown all sounds and to create the liveliest apprehensions in the breasts of the inmates of the house. It was not long from the beginning of the storm, before the wharf between the hotel and the shore was swept away. This, however, was but the beginning of the end. In a few moments, the portices of the first, second and third stories, on the east side, shook and trembled and then succumbed to the force of the storm. As they were borne away, being turned over and over by the terrific gale, just as a sheet of paper is borne upon an ordinary breeze, hope of escape almost died out in the breasts of those who, from the hotel, watched the storm king as he raged on every side of the house.

The astonished vision had not yet done viewing the receding portices, as they were borne away, growing dimmer and dimmer alternately between the spray and the billows, ere a current lifted upon its wings the whole roof of the eastern part of the building and bore it away without an effort, taking also the large ball-room. The spectators were casting about them for a means of escape, when an eye cast ocean ward discerned a vessel which had snapped her anchor, bearing down upon the hotel with lightning speed. With wonderful precision, it struck the aperture fairly, and sailing in, rested where the ball-room had been. The waves inside were troubled, and even though within four walls, the vessel had not found a quiet haven. It sailed 'round and 'round, several times, and finally escaped from the side opposite where it had entered, and passing through the hotel, was finally washed upon the beach, near the custom house.

After the storm had subsided, there was not a wharf left in Morehead City or Beaufort. Vessels of various descriptions, and in different degrees of wreck, laid high and dry upon the beach and debris of all kinds filled the streets. You have seen a potato patch with its blackened leaves on a morning after a severe frost has fallen. This was the appearance of every tree in the town of Beaufort. The salt spray had covered them all, and they were black and motionless. It will be many a day before the effects of that storm are recovered from, and it will be longer still before those who witnessed it will forget its awful grandeur, or cease to remember their sensations of utter nothingness, as they stood face to face with the raging of the tempest, and realized something of the greatness of Him who controls the winds, and holds the waters in the hollow of His hand.

Candidates at Logger-Heads.

The candidates for Congress in this district, had a pretty sharp little time of it at Pleasant Grove, Johnston county, last Tuesday. In the course of his speech Capt. Davis referred to the late Gov. Graham as one of the purest and best men the State had ever produced. Young in his reply, remarked that Capt. Davis had said that if Gov. Graham were now alive he would be urging the secessionists on in their course of destruction. Capt. Davis arose and denied that he had said such a thing. Young repeated it and Capt. Davis said: "You tell a lie, sir, and you know it." "No man can tell me that I lie, sir," responded Young, and he drew his sleeves up and his friends began to gather around him. Captain Davis took his seat and folded his arms quietly across his breast; Young looked him right straight in the face for a moment or two, and then went on with his speech, and this was the end of what had promised to be a lively time. This is the story as an eye-witness tells it.

To Chairmen of County Committees.

We are requested by the State Central Executive Committee, to request of the chairmen of Conservative County Committees, in the eastern counties, who have not forwarded to Gen. Cox the names of persons in the several townships of their respective counties who are suitable to be appointed as supervisors, to do so at once, appending to the names a certificate in each instance that the person is one of good moral character, and is able to read and write. The certificate is necessary, and it is hoped will not be overlooked.

No steps have yet been taken for the appointment of supervisors in the Western counties, for the reason that no chief supervisor has yet been appointed for the Western District. All the counties east of Wake, and those lying on a line with it (Robeson, Cumberland, Harnett and Granville) are in the Eastern District, and all west of these, are in the Western District.

Digests of Decisions of the Supreme Court, Summer Term, 1876.

The allowance of a motion to vacate a judgment and grant a new trial, for newly discovered evidence, and for matters occurring since the trial and final judgment, under the supervisory power and equitable jurisdiction of this (the Supreme) Court, is a matter of sound discretion, in the exercise of which, the Court will be governed by the peculiar circumstances of each case: THEREFORE, when, in a petition for a divorce, the following issue, to-wit: "Did the plaintiff commit adultery with," &c.? was submitted to, and found by the jury against the plaintiff, and final judgment was rendered against him in such petition: IT WAS HELD, that this Court would not set aside the judgment and grant a new trial, upon the ground, that the principal witness who testified as to the adultery of the plaintiff had subsequently been convicted of perjury, for swearing falsely upon the trial of said issue, when it appeared, that the principal witness for the prosecution upon the trial of the indictment for perjury, was the plaintiff and petitioner, who now makes this motion to vacate, &c. Lorne v. Horne.

Under the provisions of the C. C. P., Secs. 342, 348, no person is excluded from becoming a witness in a matter affecting the estate of a party deceased, sought to be changed thereby, by reason of the fact, that he is a party to the action, or a party in interest, except in regard to any transaction or communication between such witness and a person deceased at the time of such examination.

A executed a bond to B, who assigned it to C, by making his mark (X); C endorsed the bond to D. The assignment by B was attested by E; upon the death of B, E was appointed his administrator. In an action brought against E, to recover on the bond: IT WAS HELD, that E was not a competent witness to prove the assignment by B to C; and that C was not a competent witness to prove that E did sign his name as attesting witness to the assignment. Ballard vs. Ballard.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court is not bound to render his services gratuitously to a party, whom the Judge of the Court below has allowed to appeal without giving the bond required by law. Martin vs. Chasteen.

When A obtained a judgment against B, Clerk of the Superior Court, for a sum of money in his hands by virtue of his office, and B died, and his administrator, upon demand failed to pay the money: HELD that the Court below erred in overruling a motion by the plaintiff for judgment upon the official bond of the clerk, under the provisions of Bat. Rev., chap. 80, sec. 24. Cooper vs. Williams.

J B died possessed of a tract of land in 1821, intestate, and leaving him surviving, six children, one of whom was H M, who, prior to J B's death, had intermarried with J M, and was, together with her husband, living upon the locus in quo at the time of the death of her father, the said J B. J M continued to live upon the locus in quo and receive the rents and profits until 1843, when he sold the same to J J in fee simple. J J entered and held possession until 1852, when he conveyed the same to S, in fee simple, who entered and has had possession ever since. Z, also a son of J B, was living upon the locus in quo, at the death of his father, and continued to live thereon until 1831, when he died leaving issue, him surviving; but they did not continue to live thereupon. Within seven years after the death of J M, the children and heirs-at-law of H M, his widow, brought an action to recover the locus in quo: HELD: That the defendants claiming under J M, who held as tenant by the courtesy, are estopped to deny the title of the plaintiffs to an undivided sixth of the locus in quo; and, second, that the plaintiffs are not barred by the Statute of Limitations.

Speaking in Chatham.

Last Tuesday speeches were made at Pittsboro by Col. T. C. Fuller, F. H. Busbee, Esq., Ike Young and the rifle eyed carpet-bagger from Ohio The people listened attentively until Tourgee began. Then the crowd left en masse, forcing him to stop before he had fairly begun. He was furious. His glass eye flashed fire, and he subsequently cussed about it. He said afterwards in conversation that the people were "a set of d—d roughs," but that he would have his say yet. So the next day he tried it again, and secured the attention of a little squad of negroes and white Republicans.

The most intelligent citizens of Chatham says that the county will give Capt. Davis a majority of 500. Col. Thos. Ruffin says Orange will give him quite 700; he has just finished his canvass of Johnston and will carry that county by an overwhelming majority. The most careful calculators assert that he will carry the district by a larger majority over Young than he did over Headen.

The Religious Interest.

We have previously mentioned the great religious feeling which has for some time pervaded the country in this vicinity. We learn that there have been quite a large number of conversions as the result of special meetings in many of the churches, especially Baptist and Methodist, in this county. This religious interest and revival influence has not, it seems, reached this city to any considerable extent. The special meetings of Dr. Burkhead in Edenton Street Methodist Church during the past week, have developed quite a deep feeling of interest on the part of the congregation in the success of the effort, but thus far a large number of the non-professors seem to be unmoved, thus showing a want of appreciation of the effort of their friends in their behalf. While this is so, the church itself is enjoying the season of revival, which cannot fail eventually to have its effect on the entire congregation, and in the community. The contrast shown in the work in the country and town, is attributable to the greater temptation to worldly amusements which the people here meet with. There is every evidence of good results to the community from the meeting of Edenton Street Church, and these views here expressed are the result of conversations with gentlemen who have observed events and who speak from observation.

Personal.

Gov. Brogden is expected back to-morrow.

Maj. John W. Graham and Col. Thos. Ruffin, of Hillsboro, were in this city, yesterday.

Chief of Police Lee, who has been quite ill for some days was able to be down street for a short while yesterday afternoon.

W. G. West, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, is at the National Hotel.

Mr. J. T. Moore and bride, nee Miss Annie Brown, returned, yesterday afternoon, from their bridal trip to New York, Philadelphia and other Northern cities.

The Asheville papers state that Capt. T. D. Johnston, who has many friends in this city and elsewhere in the State, has been nominated for the House in Buncombe. "Good enough."

Arrest of a Supposed Cattle Thief.

It was noted, some days ago, that Wm. Barnes, a negro who had come to the city to sell a stolen cow, had jumped the police who were trying to arrest him. Special policeman George Upchurch, went out, yesterday, on the hunt of him, and returned in the evening with a negro who gave his name as Wm. Merritt, and who was arrested at Clayton, Johnston county. He has not yet been identified as the thief, and may be or may not be. He will probably have a hearing to-day, at furthest to-morrow.

News from the Sunday School Excursionists.

We received, yesterday afternoon, the following from Rev. Dr. Pritchard, who accompanied the Sunday School excursion which left here last Tuesday evening for Philadelphia. It will be of interest to the friends of the excursionists, and we gladly lay it before them. The letter is dated Philadelphia, Friday 22d, and is as follows:

Dear News: We reached the Quaker City yesterday (Thursday) about 3, P. M. The crowds along the route detained us. In Baltimore, for instance, we should have started at 10 A. M. There were so many passengers that the train was divided into three sections; we constituted the third section, and there were at least six hundred in our party. We had a very pleasant trip. The McAdoo House, in Greensboro, did the handsome thing in sleeping many of our company and giving us a good breakfast for one dollar, and the conductors and steamboat captains were courteous and accommodating. It gratifies me not a little to say that they gratuitously complimented us by declaring that we were the best behaved company of excursionists they had ever carried. There was not the slightest impropriety of demeanor, on the part of any of our company, so far as I could learn, and I hereby return the sincere thanks of the Sunday School Committee to all concerned for the self-respect and excellent deportment displayed.

I believe everybody was pleased with their accommodation on the route, though I fear not a few of them failed to get comfortably quartered last night, as the city is overwhelmed, with people. The citizens say there were never so many strangers here before, and the number visiting the Centennial daily average one hundred thousand. Many think the exposition will be extended to December.

Germans in Future.

The young ladies of this city sprang invitations, yesterday afternoon, upon the young gentlemen of the city, to attend a Leap Year German to be given next Tuesday night at the National Hotel. This will be the opening event of the society season, and the young people, after a long period of ennui, will be certain to attend in force and enter into the festivities with a zest born of long abstinence.

The German Club of the city will give a German one night during Fair week, complimentary to the young ladies and gentlemen visiting the city. All arrangements will be made to have it a splendid success, and it will be one of the leading and most attractive events of the week.

Stabbing Affair.

Yesterday morning W. T. McCraw, white, and Jas. Jeffries, colored, became engaged in a difficulty, at the gin house of Mr. Simon Hayes, near the city, which resulted in Jeffries drawing a knife with which he stabbed the other in the shoulder, inflicting a painful wound. He was proceeding to finish his work, when parties near by ran in and separated them, thus saving McCraw from serious and perhaps fatal injuries. Application was speedily made to Justice Magnin for a warrant for the arrest of the offender, but he fled immediately after the stabbing and could not be found. Jeffries was but recently released from the Penitentiary; he is represented as a desperado.

Rumored Surrounding of Henderson Alford.

It was reported on the streets, yesterday morning, that a body of men had driven Henderson Alford the negro who escaped from jail last Sunday morning and subsequently mortally wounded deputy sheriff Passmore, into a marsh at the head of Alford's mill pond, about 12 miles from the city, in Middle Creek Township, and were about to arrest him. The marsh, however, is not large, and as nothing further has been heard, confirmatory of the first report, it is feared that it is untrue.

Railroad Washout.

A considerable washout, caused by the heavy rains, occurred at a culvert in an embankment near Ruffin, Rockingham county, on the Richmond & Danville railroad, on Friday evening. So large a part of the embankment was washed away, that the track was rendered impassable, and a force worked on it all of the night. The train arriving there about 9 P. M., from Richmond to Charlotte, could not get by until yesterday morning. Communication has, however, been restored.

The Speaking at LaGrange.

When the Atlantic and North Carolina train passed LaGrange, Lenoir county, yesterday morning, coming west, a large crowd was gathering to hear the speaking. Ex-Judge C. R. Thomas was there to reply to Gov Brogden, who was billed for a speech, but nothing is known thus far of the result.

Vance and Settle in Wake.

There is a misunderstanding about the place where Vance and Settle are to speak in this county. It is at Frank Johnson's Store in Panther Branch Township. Some think it is at Johnson's Store, in Middle Creek Township, near the Chatham line.

For further locals see fourth page.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

THE great Hell-Gate explosion will take place at 2:30 P. M., to-day. No damage to houses in the neighborhood is feared.

THE National Republican speaks of "the destructive Democrats of Wake county, North Carolina." These Democrats will prove very destructive to Radicalism, if they wake up in November, as they did in August, 1874.

THE financial policy of the Republican party makes the rich richer, and the poor poorer. In proof of it, we point to the million idle workingmen in the North, side by side with the lordly bondholders who are rolling in wealth.

HON. A. M. WADDELL is canvassing his District. Last week he spoke at several points in Cumberland county. His addresses are said to be very powerful and eloquent, and productive of marked and beneficial effect. The Fayetteville Gazette is confident that the Third District will return Col. Waddell to Congress by "a splendid majority."

THE bad financial policy of the Republican party has brought ruin to thousands, and loss of employment to hundreds of thousands. It is filling the land with tramps. It is crowding our alms-houses, prisons and insane asylums. Lunatics, convicts, paupers, tramps, vagabonds, are victims of the vicious policy which enriches the bondholder at the expense of the workingman. Who inaugurated this system of finance? The Republican party.

DEMOCRATIC RULE BRING PEACE.

The m[illegible] question for all the th[illegible]tful me[illegible] North Carolina is [illegible] Is it best tha[illegible] State should be controlled by the R[illegible]lican or the Democratic party?

Looking about us we find that [illegible]cial order, rapidly reviving pa[illegible] and established cordial relations b[illegible]tween the races, have followed as the immediate result of the Democratic control of affairs in Virginia, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Arkansas, and Texas. In all of these States violence, disorder and race conflicts have disappeared.

On the contrary, we see that in those States where the Republicans still hold sway, outrages upon public order and private right are committed that shock the human sense and disgrace our institutions.

This is especially so in South Carolina where Republican misrule still obtains. There the peace of the country is constantly broken; fights between the whites and blacks are not infrequent; cities and whole sections of country fall into the possession of mobs of violent negroes, and all the ruffian elements of society are left free from the restraints of law enforced by incompetent authorities.

We all want peace and quiet. The happiness of the people as well as the prosperity of the country at large, depends upon it. If Democracy brings peace, and Radicalism domestic violence, does it not stand to reason that it is best for Democracy to be uppermost? And does not a comparison between the condition of the Southern States now under Republican control and those under Democratic government, prove beyond the shadow of doubt that peace and good order and returning prosperity, with all their bright array of concomitant blessings, follow white supremacy; and that all manner of evil—corruption, malfeasance, oppressive taxation, strife, contentions, violence, bloody race conflicts, murders, assassinations, burnings, rapes—result from negro and carpet-bag supremacy?

THROWING STONES FROM A GLASS HOUSE.

The report of Judge Settle's intoxication at Jonesboro is a positive falsehood, maliciously told and circulated by Democratic newspapers.—New North State.

The editor of the New North State should not make against his brethren of the Democratic press, the grave charge of malicious lying, unsupported by other testimony than his own bare word. It is the very acme of rashness for him to do so.

It is well to be plain about these things. Gentlemen who formed a part of the Jonesboro audience took the Judge, on that occasion, to be drunk; if they labored under a delusion about it, his conduct and language certainly indicated at least a temporary mania, potu. If we remember aright, his language was about this: "You d—d, infernal scoundrels; you fiends of h—l."

Now, is it not charity to ascribe such language, on such an occasion, to drunkenness, rather than to the natural bent of mind and heart, hitherto concealed by policy, but now exposed by anger? And is it not to be attributed to one or the other?

Apart from the Jonesboro exhibition, is it not well understood that the Judge is "very much that way inclined?"

We have hitherto avoided this subject: we feel no desire now to enter upon such a field of controversy; but our little brother should not attribute falsehood and malice to us, when we are so well fortified in our position.

We imagine that Judge Settle will not thank his over-zealous organ for bringing on this attack from behind such very, very thin glass walls.—Does the fact that Settle was once a co-member with Mr. Ball of the Greensboro Lodge of Good Templars induce this ill-advised zeal for defense, on the part of the latter? If so, let him go a little further and tell us how the Judge got rid of the solemn obligations of that order? How did he get out of the Lodge? Brother Ramsay look to your flock! And you Mr. Ball, take care, or you will get a letter from the Judge commencing thus—a somewhat modified form of the Jonesboro speech: "You infernal little carpet-bagger! Couldn't you have better sense than to pull this skeleton from my closet? You little fiend of H—l! You'll have the whole thing public directly. Keep your mouth shut, you imp!"

"THE CONFEDERATE CONGRESS."

Some of the Republicans of the North—the extremists, call the recent Congress of the United States, the "Confederate Congress," in derision. They do this because the Southern men of the Congress had influence and assisted very materially in bringing to light the corruptions of the Republican party.

The Democrats of Massachusetts take a correct view of that body, and and admit the good it did for the benefit of the country. In their recent State Convention, the following resolution was adopted:

To the National House of Representatives the gratitude of the country is especially due, for its courageous and largely successful efforts—in spite of the implacable hostility of an improvident administration and its supporters—to reduce the expenses of the government to a scale adjusted to the economical necessities of a period of unexampled industrial distress and the requirements of Republican absolute simplicity and frugality; also, for its inquiries into official maladministration, whereby gross corruptions have been exposed to popular execration, unfaithful officers expelled in disgrace from the exalted places of authority they defiled, and the honest sentiment of the country aroused to a knowledge of evils and the imperative need of reform. The action of the Democratic House in the measures that met its sanction conclusively refutes the absurd charges of a malevolent opposition the Democratic party entertains any spirit or purpose disloyal to the national integrity of the republic, or to the letter or spirit of the Federal Constitution in any of its parts.

RELIEF FOR NEGROES ROBBED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The negroes have been badly robbed by the Republicans. Stealing the money of the depositors of the Freedmen's Bank, was perhaps the meanest thing the Radicals ever did—except stealing the money appropriated by Congress to erect gravestones over the Union dead.

Several years have passed since the freedmen were robbed. The party that they blindly follow has done nothing towards indemnifying them for their losses.

It is probable that the Democrats will, when they get in power, indemnify the sufferers. A movement in that direction has been begun in the North. The recent Democratic State Convention of Massachusetts adopted the following resolution:

That among the misdeeds of the Republican party not the least conspicuous, is the management of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company, chartered by a Republican Congress without sufficient safeguards to protect the interests of its depositors, which has resulted in the robbing of many thousands of confiding freedmen, and that it is therefore the duty of Congress to take legal measures to secure to the sufferers full indemnity for their losses.

THE REPUBLICANS RESPONSIBLE.

No one can deny that there is widespread distress in the country, North, South, East and West. Financial ruin has overtaken thousands of good business men. Tens of thousands of industrious men are out of employment. The commercial interests are flat; the manufacturing interests are terribly depressed; the farming interests are not prosperous; the people are not contented nor happy.

Whose fault is it? Who is responsible for this condition of things? Is it not the party in power? Are we not suffering from the results of their extravagance, bad financial policy, unbearable taxation, and general mismanagement of the affairs of the Government?

THE organization of a colored Tilden and Vance Club in this city, is one of the most significant political events of the day. The negroes of this State have hitherto stood in solid mass behind the carpet-baggers. Since the right of suffrage was first conferred upon them they have presented to us an unbroken front.—Now, they are of their own free will and accord breaking up the color line. It is a good sign for the future. The colored element will hereafter divide between the parties, just as the white people do; all the dark fore-bodings of race-conflicts will disappear; and the negro will become, as the constitution of the United States intends him to become—a FREE CITIZEN, instead of a blind, blundering tool of carpet-baggers and other wicked, designing men.

THE business of the country is prostrated. Capable business men are involved in ruin, by reason of the stringency of the times. Tens of thousands of laborers in the North are idle, and suffering. What is the cause of all this? It may be found in the unparalleled official corruption and extravagance of the Republican party, and the accompanying unbearable taxation by the Federal Government of more than Four Billions of Dollars ($4,000,000,000) during the past eleven years.

THE Post-master at Saura'own, Stokes county, refused to make a contribution for campaign purposes—or rather to pay the assessment levied upon him by the Radical Executive Committee of the Fifth District. Whereupon the keys were taken from him and the office discontinued.—This gives the citizens of that point great inconvenience. We should like to know if the Post-office is established for the benefit of the public or for the partisan purposes of the Republicans?

GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN, Senator Patterson, and Mr. Wallace, United States Marshal of South Carolina, met in Washington to beg additional military force for South Carolina. But, Attorney-General Taft dodged them. Judge Bond failed to hold the special session of the Federal Court here. Has General Sherman knocked the military programme in the head?

IT is too true to be denied that the corruption and extravagance of the Administration with its accompanying unbearable taxation, during the past eleven years, is the cause of the prostration of business. Yet the entire Republican party in Congress earnestly opposed the retrenchment and economic policy of the Democratic party.

T. revelations of rascality in Franklin county is surprising; but it is not surprising that one of the parties indicted was once upon a time a Republican candidate for Congress.

WE warn the Democrats against the Magnolia Monitor. It pretends to be Democratic, but refuses to support Col. Waddell, the regular nominee of the party, for Congress in the Third District. The Wilmington Journal pronounces the revival of the Monitor, in the guise of a Democratic sheet, as probably one of Cannady's electioneering tricks.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

General Jagstreet wants to be State engineer of Louisiana.

M. Capoul, the tremolo tenor is to be married to a young lady of the culinary name of Gre[illegible].

Wagner has erected a tomb in the garden attached to his villa at Bayreuth, in which he wishes to be buried.

An article by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe in the Spiritual Scientist indicates her conversion to Spiritualism.

The people want reform, economy, reduced taxation. The republican party wants "troops" to control the southern elections.

"The man who could make milk punch just right every time," said Commodore Vanderbilt to another morning, as he sipped his favorite beverage, "and who knew how to keep out everything obnoxious, and put in everything delicious, could make a big fortune."

Horace Greeley used to tell this story: He once sent a claim for collection to a western lawyer, and regarding it as rather a desperate claim, told the attorney if he collected it he might reserve half the amount for a fee. In due time Mr. Greeley received the following laconic epistle: Dear sir—I have succeeded in collecting my half of that claim. The balance is heeless."

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

A. S. Perry has accepted the Democratic nomination for county Commissioner of Franklin.

Col. L. L. Polk, of the Ansonian will speak at the Democratic flag-raising at Wakulla Academy, Robeson county October 5th.

Oliver will not run for Congress. Settle's and the general beat will be enough for Dockery. He is something of a philosopher in this, is O. H. Dockery, "my son Oliver."—Wilmington Star.

Congressional canvass—Robbins and Dula spoke here according to appointment, on last Saturday. They are getting along very well—nothing unpleasant so far has occurred between them. Dula is simply going round for the sake of party organization—to keep the party together, if he can. He of course entertains no hope of being elected.—Salisbury Watchman.

The political prospects of the democracy in Currituck are bright and promising. Capt. Coke did a good work for us when he was down here. Thos. G. Munden, who has heretofore been a red-hot republican has renounced the party and is now a zealous worker in the democratic ranks. There is a good feeling among the colored people and a great many of them will vote with the democracy.—Eliz. City Economist.

Elections Preceding the Great Contest.

The Presidential election takes place on the first Tuesday in November next (7th) and will be preceded by the following State elections;

Georgia on the 11th of October. Gen. A. H. Colquitt is at the head of the Democratic ticket for the Governorship, and his election is predicted by seventy-five thousand majority, notwithstanding Ruger has the headquarters of the military department of the South at Atlanta. As yet the Republicans have not indicated a purpose to contest the field.

West Virginia, on the 10th of October. This election embraces a State ticket, members of the legislature and members of Congress. The Democrats claim that all their dissensions are healed and that they will carry the State by a large majority.

Ohio, on the 10th of October. In this State a State ticket with the exception of Governor and Lieutenant Governor will be elected.

Indiana on the 10th of October. Here a full ticket will be elected. Indiana promises to be the battle ground preparatory to the Presidential contest in November and both parties will put forth their best efforts to secure the ascendancy.

Iowa on the 10th of October. This is a Republican State, and may be expected to cast its vote in that direction, both in October and November.

Nebraska on the 10th of October.

Texas, on the 6th of November. This State will probably go Democratic by from 75,000 to 100,000 majority, but the election is too near the time of holding the Presidential election to affect it in any perceptible degree.

Delaware State election, on the 6th of November. The Democracy are confident of victory. It is not yet known whether or not United States troops will be used by Grant in this State to carry the State for the Republicans if possible.

The New South.

[Brooklyn Argus.]

Mr. Nordhoff's paper, read to the Social Science Congress, treats of the negro in the South. In 1865 the negro actually owned only the clothes he wore—ragged as they were. For eleven years these people have had freedom. In Georgia the authorities have taken pains to inquire into the condition and progress of the freedmen. The State has been Democratic for five years, and the negro has had little opportunity to play the statesman. In Georgia the colored voters number about 80,000, and according to the returns of 1874 the freedmen, who by the census of 1870 numbered 545,000, were possessed of 338,769 acres of farming real estate, $1,200 115 worth of city and town realestate, and paid taxes in a valuation of $7,157,798. So far as ascertained from diligent inquiry the negroes of Georgia own more real estate per head than those of any other of the States. The negroes prefer to buy uncleared land near cities and villages, and clear it for themselves. The planters do not like to sell these small lots, as a negro settlement deteriorates the rest of the estate. Thus it is that we hear of planters refusing to sell land to the freedmen. The system of leasing cotton lands is such that the freedman will have a surplus at the end of the season of from $250 to $400 This he sells at his leisure. The negro distrusts savings banks. Once pinched by the philanthropists of the General Howard school he cannot be fooled again. Mr. Nordhoff says that in every Southern State you may find colored families who lost money in this bank, and that cruel fraud was a serious discouragement to thrift among the whole colored population of the South. Almost universally the relations between the planter and the freedmen are kindly and agreeable. The colored man seeks the planter's advice in all the relations of his life, deposits his spare cash with him, and in fact deals with him as his friend up to the point where politics come in, and then he shoots over to the other side without a moment's hesitation. He will vote for a bad man who is a Republican rather than for a planter with whom he has the kindest relations. The negroes who are fairly dealt with by the planters, and such is the rule, give satisfaction. Free labor is centralizing population in towns and villages. It is introducing labor-saving machines. It is inducing the negroes to migrate, and the fact that they go from North Carolina, Alabama and Georgia to Mississippi, Louisiana, and Arkansas, in which States it is said that the negro's life is not safe, shows that a good deal of the cry of Southern outrage is pure invention. "The negro does not remove wildly or blindly," says Mr. Nordhoff, and by this plain statement disposes of much of the bloody-shirt business, and of the necessity of such circulars as emanate from Washington. The only trouble at the South is political. Industry has room, and crops are large. Nordhoff says: "There are fewer persons there unemployed, the average earnings of the laboring classes are larger, the surplus produced in those States over and above what is necessarily expended by the population in living has been greater for several years than in any equally numerous Northern population." A new civil service is needed. The Federal officers band together the negroes and establish the color line. They are feared and hated. They exercise power in an arbitrary manner. If they kept out of local politics matters would soon settle themselves. Mr. Nordhoff's opinions are based upon long and close observation, and are undoubtedly a correct transcript of the situation.—Brooklyn Argus.

Hayes' Tax Returns---The Accusations Stated Briefly and in Order.

[From the Chicago Times.]

1. With a full knowledge of the requirements of the law, R. B Hayes has persistently neglected to list his property subject to taxation.

2. He has for three years made false oath as to the value of his property above his just debts.

3. He has sworn that in 1864 his property was worth only $2,581, when that portion of it liable to be taxed turned $60,000.

4. He has refused for three years to list his gallery of paintings and a diamond that fell to him as a residuary legatee—$5 000.

5 He never paid any money toward the Fort Stevenson purchase, although he says he did, for the purpose of explaining the remarkable falling off in the exhibits of figures from 1873 to 1874.

6. He had in 1874-'75-'76 about $9,000 worth of credits, in the shape of mortgages, which he did not list, and, more than this, perjured himself by swearing he was not possessed of them.

7. He had three houses in 1874, and swore he had but one.

8. He had three watches in 1874, and swore he had but one.

9. He has had the use of thirty odd thousand dollars left as bequests by his uncle, for which he makes no return.

10. He has disregarded the law, and made no return to the Probate Court of Sandusky county for the executorship of his uncle's will.

11 In short, Rutherford B. Hayes has been guilty of false swearing for the past three years, and has swindled his country and the State of Ohio out a large share of their just revenues.

Judge Settle on Boyd.

[Greensboro Patriot.]

Is Judge Settle for Boyd? We venture to answer in the negative, unless he has changed his mind since he gave in his sworn testimony before the United States Senate Investigating Committee in 1871 It will be remembered that a committee was appointed by the United State Senate in January of that year to investigate the Ku Klux. Judge Settle, being first sworn, was examined as follows:

Question—With your knowledge of the means by which the organization seeks to accomplish its purposes, do you believe it would be safe to entrust its members with political power as members of Congress or the State Legislature?

Answer.—No sir. Having heard the character of theirs oaths I could not trust them with anything anywhere.

Question.—Would it be prudent to remove the disabilities of such men?

Answer.—Well I would not trust a man in any position private or public who I believe was a member of that organization or who had taken these oaths.

This testimony may be found on page 90 of the Report of the Senate Committee, Feb. 3, 1871. So Judge Settle is against Boyd or he has gone back on his oath before this committee.

How is it Captain Settle?

All the Ladies are for Z. B. Vance.

[Hickory Press.]

Saturday of the great speaking of Vance and Settle at Lincolnton the rostrum was directly under the windows of a building which was filled with the pretty ladies of that place. Settle spoke first and when he got through about half dozen boquets fell at his feet. He with a loving smile and graceful bow to the ladies, turned to pick them up, but to his chagrin and mortification, they were all labeled, Z. B. Vance.

Common Sense vs. Prejudice.

By R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., Author of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," etc., etc.

I am aware that there is a popular, and not altogether unfounded, prejudice against "patent medicines," owing to the small amount of merit which many of them possess. The appellation "Patent Medicine," does not apply to my remedies, as no patent has ever been asked for or obtained upon them, nor have they been urged upon the public as "cure-alls." They are simply some favorite prescriptions, which, in a very extensive practice, have proved their superior remedial virtues in the cure of the diseases for which they are recommended. Every practicing physician has his favorite remedies, which he oftenest recommends or uses, because he has the greatest confidence in their virtues. The patient does not know their composition. Even prescriptions are usually written in a language unintelligible to any but the druggist. As much secrecy is employed as in the preparation of proprietary medicines. Does the fact that an article is prepared by a process known only to the manufacturer render that article less valuable? How many physicians know the elementary composition of the remedies which they employ, some of which have never been analyzed? Few practitioners know how Morphine, Quinine, Podophyllin, Leptandrin, Pepsin, or Chloroform, are made, or how nauseous drugs are transformed into palatable elixirs; yet they do not hesitate to employ them. Is it not inconsistent to use a prescription, the composition of which is unknown to us, and discard another preparation simply because it is accompanied by a printed statement of its properties with directions for its use?

Some persons, while admitting that my medicines are good pharmaceutical compounds, object to them on the ground that they are too often used with insufficient judgment. I propose to obviate this difficulty by enlightening the people as to the structure and functions of their bodies, the cause, character, and symptoms, of disease, and by indicating the proper and judicious employment of my medicines, together with such auxiliary treatment as may be necessary. Such is one of the designs of the People's Medical Adviser, forty thousand copies of which have already been published, and are sold at the exceedingly low price of $1 50, and sent (postpaid) to any address within the United States and Canada.

If you would patronize medicines, scientifically prepared, use my Family Medicines. Golden Medical Discovery is tonic, alterative, or blood cleansing and an unequaled cough remedy; Pleasant Purgative Pellets, scarcely larger than mustard seed, constitute an agreeable and reliable physic; Favorite Prescription, a remedy for debiliated females; my Compound Extract of Smart-Weed, a magical remedy for pain, bowel complaints, and an unequaled Liniment for both human and horse flesh; while Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is known the world over as the greatest specific for Catarrh and "Cold in the Head," ever given to the public.

These standard remedies have been before the public for many years—a period long enough to fully test their merits, and the best argument that can be advanced in their favor is the fact that their sale was never so great as during the past six months.

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid, has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the county of Robeson, Richmond, Bladen, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining counties of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington in South Carolina. As a Local Newspaper it has no superior. It is one of the few country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will strive to promote the principles of the Democratic-Conservative party, and is uncompromisingly in favor of White Supremacy. It local columns will always teem with the latest and best news, written in a brief, intelligent and business like manner. Its editorials will be short and lucid and upon subjects when directly concern our people. As an advertising medium it is much sought after and has a patronage second to no other country paper. Established in 1870, it has ever since been increasing in influence and popularity until it has reached and occupied the very front rank of North Carolina journalism.

Money Spirited Away.

Mr. Allen Honeycutt, an old man who lives near Rolesville, was in the city, yesterday, and sold his cotton. After getting his money from the bank, he pulled out the roll, about the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, to pay some one to whom he was indebted, but finding that his change was in another pocket, he laid this roll down on a cotton bale in front of him, and reached in his pocket for his pocket-book. When he raised his eyes again to where he had left his money lying, it was not there. Several negroes were standing around, but of course nobody knew who took the money, and this was the last that was ever seen of it by Mr. Honeycutt. The poor old man went home with a heavy heart, for it was money which had been earned by hard work, and he could ill afford to lose it in this way. The roll comprised about $42.

Perhaps a Fatal Accident.

A colored train hand by name Henry W. Wilson, who has been in the employ of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad for 4 years past, fell from a freight train at Mill Brook, on that road, yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, and had his thigh broken. It is thought that the injury will prove fatal. The man's home is in Warren county.

NOON DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

Milan's Situation—The Armistice—Physician Dead—Tweed Coming—Positions of the Powers on the Peace Questions.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A Belgrade dispatch to the Daily News says that in consequence of the unwillingness of the ministry to recognize the action of the army in making Milan King, the new ministry come into power to-day.

The Times' Belgrade dispatch says no official news has been received regarding the prolongation of the armistice. Dr. Thomas Daycock, medical writer and physician to the queen, is dead.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company from Madrid, in reply to an inquiry in regard to Wm. M. Tweed, says it is now definitely settled that he and his companion, Hunt, will be embarked on board the New York steamer [illegible] the United States. The order to send Tweed and Hunt to Cuba, was withdrawn in consequence of an arrangement between the Spanish Government and the United States. The Franklin left Gibralter at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, for Vigo, where she will remain one day to embark prisoners.

A dispatch from Vienna to the Times, explains that difficulty has arisen because the Porte, before granting a prolongation of the armistice, desires the powers to give their opinion in regards to its peace propositions. The powers on the other hand, persist in demanding a conclusion of the armistice, irrespective of this condition, because as these have, from the commencement insisted that an armistice was indispensable, they consider it would be derogatory to admit any sort of compromise on the subject. The powers also intend this attitude as a concession to Russia, she having, throughout the negotiations, determinedly supported an unconditional armistice. As the term for which the present suspension of hostilities has been granted draws to a close, the demands of the powers become more pressing, some of them having tolerably plainly intimated that the Porte's refusal to grant an armistice would lead to a suspension of their diplomatic relations.

Fires in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—Rosedale & Co., furniture, 31 Frederick street, were burned out to-day; also Brieux & Co., notions, 315 Baltimore street, Brosieux had a full fall stock, which will be a complete loss, Seim & Emory, wholesale glass, were damaged.

Savannah Cries for Aid—No Epidemic at Charleston—Frightful Situation at Brunswick—Interments in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 23—At a meeting of the Savannah Benevolent Association, formerly the Metropolitan Fire Company, held this day, the Association resolved to ask aid from abroad for the sick and destitute of Savannah through its President, J. H. Estell. All contributions, whether of money, provisions or clothing, addressed to J. H. Estell, President Metropolitan Benevolent Association, will be received and acknowledged through the columns of the Morning News.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 23.—There is no epidemic in Charleston. There are, so far, four scattering yellow fever cases, variously traced to persons who communicated with the quarantine and refugees from Savannah. The fever shows no signs of spreading. Will promptly report any increase.

BRUNSWICK, GA., Sept. 23.—There are six hundred cases of yellow fever at Brunswick, Georgia. The people are in a most destitute condition, without food, physicians, or nurses. A despatch states that it is impossible to exaggerate the frightful condition of affairs at Brunswick. Some of the people will die from starvation unless speedy aid is rendered.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 23.—Total interments to-day forty-six, of which thirty were of yellow fever.

FOREIGN.

The Truce Will Probably Continue and End the War.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Times' Berlin dispatch says it is expected that to gain time for negotiations, Russia will stop the dispatch of soldiers to Servia, when Turkey will no longer object to grant a prolonged armistice. If Russia continues to permit the exodus of troops, the Porte will still allow the continuance of the present truce for an additional ten days, which, as it would reach to the commencement of the rainy season, would practically terminate the war.

Allied Enemies to Health.

In many of the fairest and most fertile districts of North and Tropical America, air and water are allied enemies to health, both being impregnated with the poisonous miasmata which produces chills and fever, bilious, remittents and febrile disorders of a still more malignant type. Fortunately, a sure preventive and curative of such destructive maladies is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a vegetable preparation which is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its efficacy and freedom from all hurtful properties, to the deleterious minerals and alkaloid remedies of the pharmacopœia. It is moreover, the reigning specific for dyspepsia, debility, constipation, kidney troubles, rheumatism, promotes appetite and sleep, and is a capital antidote to depression of spirits.

Neuralgia Specific can always be relied on not only for relief, but for the cure of that terrible disease.

PROOF.

Drs. Greene, Lindley & Bentley:

Gentlemen—My wife had been suffering from an attack of Neuralgia about once per week for four or five years, from which she suffered severely. About eighteen months ago our Dr. Lindley recommended your Neuralgia Specific, which we procured and tried with most happy results. She has not had a single attack since she first began its use. She has used only one bottle.
